

Timetable search

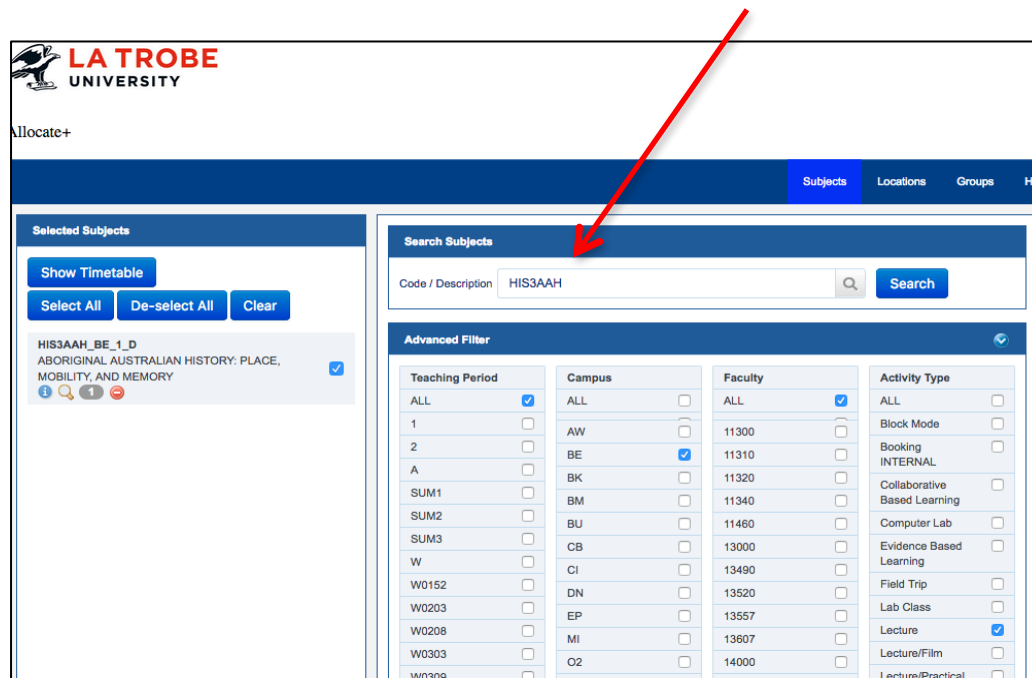

The timetable is finalised over the weeks before the semester begins, so in January not all the courses have been allocated a time and room.

To find the timetable details:

Enter the subject code into the search field

Select Campus = BE

Select Activity Type = lecture

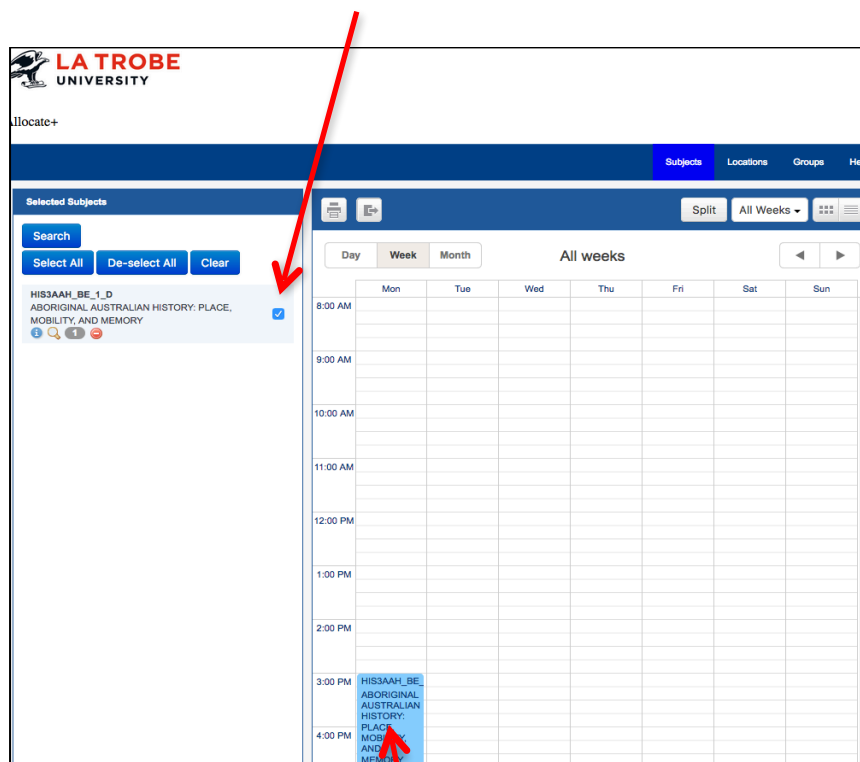

The screenshot shows the 'Allocate+' interface on the LA Trobe University website. The 'Search Subjects' section has 'HIS3AAH' entered in the search field. The 'Advanced Filter' section is expanded, showing the following filters:

A red arrow points to the search field containing 'HIS3AAH'.

Make sure the box beside your chosen subject is ticked.

When you click on Show Timetable, and the subject has been added to the timetable, it will appear like this:

The screenshot shows the 'Allocate+' interface with the subject 'HIS3AAH' selected in the 'Selected Subjects' list. The 'Show Timetable' button has been clicked, and the timetable view is displayed. The timetable is set to 'All weeks' and shows a grid for the days of the week (Mon to Sun) and times (8:00 AM to 4:00 PM). A red arrow points to the subject name in the 'Selected Subjects' list, and another red arrow points to the subject name in the timetable grid at 3:00 PM on Monday.

Clicking on the

timetable itself should give a screen like this:
